

Dana Medical Library Fact Sheet:

FY 2010

The current facility opened on July 15, 2005. It occupies approximately the same location as its former location, in the Medical Alumni Building, where it was open from 1986 to 2001.

Collections

- Over 129,000 print volumes
- 240 videos, DVDs, CDs, and other A/V materials
- 5,069 full-text health sciences electronic journals
- 5,282 serials (magazines, journals and newspapers) in all formats (print and online)
- 25,566 books
- Access to 48 health sciences reference databases, and hundreds of databases in other subjects

The Medical History Collection contains books, journals, and artifacts from the sixteenth century to the present. The emphasis of the collection is on American medicine and health care in Vermont. Dana also maintains a collection of old and rare medical instruments.

The Consumer Health Collection of books, newsletters and audiovisual materials is intended to assist the general public in making informed decisions about their health. These materials can be borrowed easily by any Vermont resident.

Services

The Library is open 106.5 hours a week until midnight Sunday through Thursday during the academic year.

The Library offers Reference, Electronic Document Delivery, Interlibrary Loan, Reserves and Copyright Law Compliance, and Instruction services.

- Over 330,000 hits on the Dana Medical Library Website
- Over 192,000 persons entering or exiting the library
- 5,416 reference questions answered (includes mediated database searches and unscheduled instruction)
- 130 education sessions/classes
- 3,612 interlibrary loan requests received from off-campus requestors
- 3,282 items borrowed from outside sources
- 847 document delivery requests from affiliated users

Facilities

- 45 computers for public use
- The computer classroom has 13 computers, projection capabilities and audiovisual equipment. A state-of-the-art podium allows the instructor to deliver customized multimedia presentations.
- There are 3 group study rooms; one of which is equipped with a TV, VCR, and DVD
- 3 lounge areas
- Compact shelving that saves space and helps accommodate the extensive print journal collection to 1986. Prior years at the LRA.
- 40 study carrels have individual task lighting, network ports and electric outlets.
- Networked wireless access throughout (supports laptop use)
- 20,000 square feet of space

February 2011

Ask. Discover. Create
<http://library.uvm.edu/dana>